Running Y Ranch Resort Brings Horseback Riding Back for Second Year Saddle Up and Let Your Spirit Run Free

May 10, 2018 – Klamath Falls, Oregon – Running Y Ranch Resort is excited to bring horseback riding back for the second year. Saddle up and enjoy a horseback riding adventure that departs right from the resort grounds. This top quality horseback riding program will begin on May 24th and run through the end of September.

Trail rides will be led by the finest guides in Southern Oregon catering to both novices and experienced riders, so regardless of experience level, riders will truly experience a life-changing journey. The forested wilderness area surrounding the resort is the perfect setting for riding. The trail goes amongst Ponderosa pines and Juniper trees and offers a front row view of Klamath Lake and spectacular views of the Skillet Handle – an area renowned for birding. Depending on the day, riders may see red winged blackbirds, egrets, grebes and bald eagles.

One hour rides leave at 10 am, 1 pm, and 4 pm and are $95 per person. Riders age six and up are welcome, and helmets are provided for all. Advanced reservations are required. Those interested in reserving a riding time may call Bonnie McElrath at 541.840.9999.
